Gardner's poem of the month:

When the trees their summer splendour
Change to raiment red and gold,
When the summer moon turns mellow,
And the nights are getting cold;
When the squirrels hide their acorns,
And the robins disappear;
Then we know that it is autumn,
Loveliest season of the year.

November 11th-

To Canadian and international veterans (both living and those who have gone to their rest): Thank you for your sacrifice and will to protect your country and its people. Always and forever we will honour your service and work. Today and everyday I am grateful to be Canadian. Wear a red poppy with pride

In Flanders fields the poppies blow
Between the crosses, row on row,
That mark our place; and in the sky
The larks, still bravely singing, fly
Scarce heard amid the guns below.

We are the Dead. Short days ago
We lived, felt dawn, saw sunset glow,
Loved and were loved, and now we lie,
In Flanders fields.

Take up our quarrel with the foe:
To you from failing hands we throw
The torch; be yours to hold it high.
If ye break faith with us who die
We shall not sleep, though poppies grow
In Flanders fields.
